

1. As a vetted member of Stone Federation, some client bodies specify Stone Federation members only.
2. Stone Federation member promotions on web site and in publications.
3. Full entry with company details in Stone Federation Stone Specifiers Guide widely circulated to clients.
4. Trade specific social events and golf days.
5. Company fully featured on Stone Federation website.
6. Company website linked to Stone Federation site.
7. Company website designed and installed at discounted cost.
8. Hot link to Stone Federation website and other relevant sites.
9. Referred leads from the SF website (direct to member).
10. Use of Stone Federation logo on company literature.
11. Inclusion in the Hallmarque Scheme.
12. Company details and your stone produced listed on website.
13. Technical data on stones published on SF website.
14. Promotion of your stone in generic presentations.
15. Opportunities to contribute to magazine articles or in television and radio presentations.
16. Use of a London office (subject to availability).
17. Access to marketing/promotional materials.
18. Use of SF professional PR Consultants.
19. Inclusion of your project information in SF PR articles.
20. Participation in CPD Presentations to architects, nationally and regionally.
21. Participation in seminars and conferences.
22. Participation in presentations of key issues.
23. Direct links to Government and Government departments.
24. Contract leads at discounted cost.
25. Representation at trade shows, both in the UK and abroad.
26. Access to inward trade missions.
27. Participation in Government projects.
28. Services of Director and staff at Stone Federation headquarters.
29. Participation in Natural Stone Show at discounted cost.
30. Participation in Stone in the City presentations.
31. Natural Stone Awards.
32. Free advice via help lines.
33. Legal helpline, advice and information from Watson Burton.
34. Contractual helpline, advice and help with letters from Watson Burton.
35. Health and safety helpline and advice.
36. Employment affairs helpline and advice from Watson Burton.
37. Tax information.
38. Stone industry specific insurance helpline and advice.
39. Free technical helpline – advice for members and your clients.
40. Stone Federation mediation with clients if problems arise.
41. Site visits by technical experts for your clients.
42. Codes of Practices – illustrating best practice in the industry and specified by architects.
43. Provision of up to the minute data and information sheets on major topics in the industry.
44. Regularly updated comprehensive publications list.
45. Discounted publications available from Construction Industry Publications.
46. 10% discount on purchasing British Standards from CIP.
47. 10% discount when joining Constructionline.
48. Access and representation on working groups/industry committees.
49. Technical Committee – at the forefront of benchmarking the industry.
50. Quarry Forum – championing indigenous stone.
51. Stone Cleaning and Surface Repair Group.
52. PR Focus Group – promoting your industry.
53. British Slate Association - Promoting indigenous slate.
54. Marble & Granite Group - promotes the use of these materials.
55. Natural Stone Industry Training Group. Setting and maintaining standards.
56. Services of a dedicated Training Officer.
57. Advice on all aspects of ConstructionSkills (CITB) including levy, grant and course information.
58. Discounts on ConstructionSkills courses.
59. Stonetrain - stone industry courses exclusive to members
60. Regional Groups with visits and exchange of information.
61. Monthly newsletter keeping you up to date with the stone industry.
62. Direct access to HSE.
63. Advanced notice of HSE campaigns.
64. Stone Industry specific health and safety information sheets.
65. Seat on the Quarries National Joint Advisory Committee.
66. Representatives on BSI/EU working groups – an opportunity to influence future standards.
67. Links with European and overseas federations.
68. Members only technical seminars.
69. Value improvement solutions service.
70. Donovan Purcell Lecture.
71. Trainee Mason of the Year Award
72. UK Masonry Skills Challenge
73. Extensive legal advice from leading construction lawyers, Watson Burton.
74. The peace of mind in belonging to a well respected and trusted trade federation.